

Father's Day Run helps CDCG

On Sunday, June 15, Community Resource, in association with the Hudson Mohawk Road Runners Club, hosted the third annual Community Resource Father's Day 5K Run and Fun Run for Kids at the Crossings Park in Colonie. 274 adults and 80 children participated in the event that raised $7,456 to help Capital District Community Gardens (CDCG).

Pictured is the starting line of the Community Resource Father's Day 5K Run. The winner of the 3.1-mile race was Anthony Giuliano of Albany with a time of 16 minutes, 10 seconds.

Because of their leadership and the generosity of the community, more families in need will be able to grow their own food in our community gardens and access healthy produce on The Veggie Mobile," said Amy Klein, Executive Director, Capital District Community Gardens.

Community Resource raised the money by asking local businesses to sponsor the event and by selling raffle tickets. The Credit Union donated two airline tickets to anywhere in the 48 U.S. states for the raffle. The winner of the raffle was Greg Vigilante.

“For the second year, The Community Resource Federal Credit Union has provided critical support to our programs with the funds raised by their Father's Day Run.
